LVX, is an imaging decision support system used to reach an assessment of the patient's myocardial perfusion study and to use these findings to generate an automated, structured, intelligent Cardiac Report (SmartReport™) using information from acquired ECG gated myocardial perfusion SPECT imaging (MPI) analyzed using ECTb4.